

WE NEED COMPASSION

Australia: A Continent for Compassion

Forum 9 February 2018

In 2018, the Charter for Compassion celebrates 10 years of bringing compassion to the world.

This is your invitation to learn about the work of the Charter on a global basis, and be briefed on how you can join the journey that is now underway to create Australia: A Continent for Compassion.

Speakers will include:

- Marilyn Turkovich – Global Director, Charter for Compassion
- Dr Ursula Stephens – Former Senator, Parliamentary Sec. for Social Inclusion
- Dr Lynne Reeder – Lead Facilitator, Charter for Compassion, Australia
- Terry Ayling – Lead Facilitator, Australian Compassionate Cities Network
- Mary Freer – Lead Facilitator, Australian Day of Compassion
- Debbie Ling – Lead Facilitator, Australian Compassion Action Network

Date – Friday, 9 February 2018

Time – 10.30am-12.00pm

Venue – Baldessin Precinct Bldg, Room W121, 110 Ellery Crescent,
Australian National University

No formal registration required - inquires: Dr Lynne Reeder m) 0431 608 958

We envision Australia becoming a country where people, organisations and institutions live by the principles of compassion, fairness and justice. Where the universal rule of treating others as we wish to be treated ourselves is evident throughout Australian culture, endeavours and decision making in the fields of business, politics, education, health, community, spirituality, arts, social services, and research